Develop the Possibilities

SPEAKERS:

June Glasson, artist, designer, and cofounder of the Wyoming Art Party and The Art & Action Project. "Studio and Community Work"

- ◆ Artist, designer, and Wyoming Art Party co-founder will be talking about her art practice and how she makes work in the studio and with her community. She'll be sharing some of her work and will be talking about the importance of collaboration in her work and the community. She will also share collaboration ideas and art projects to take back to our libraries.

Chris Van Burgh, Wyoming State Library Database Instruction Librarian

- ◆ Join Chris Van Burgh as she shares information about the WYLD databases, specifically literature, summer reading, and what Go-WYLD can do for you.

Paige Bredenkamp, Wyoming State Library School Library Consultant

- ◆ Paige Bredenkamp will present information she gained at the YALSA forum regarding teen services competencies, the paradigm shift in teen services, and getting admin/community buy-in. Then, join in a roundtable discussion to weigh in on how to incorporate these topics in your libraries.
